HOW IT IS USED

Monitoring, as a solution, sends you timely notifications on important changes to the customer profile on a daily basis. By knowing your client's situation well in advance, you can gain a competitive advantage from which to make the fastest, most appropriate response.

YOU CAN MONITOR:

- New inquiries made on the customer by third parties

- New contracts being reported

- Credit and payment information changes (past due amounts, loan amounts, outstanding amounts, etc.)

- Credit score changes

- Personal information changes (changes of address, name, contact information, etc.)
